"A sure-fire hit!"

K.M. North, Sparrow Heart Records

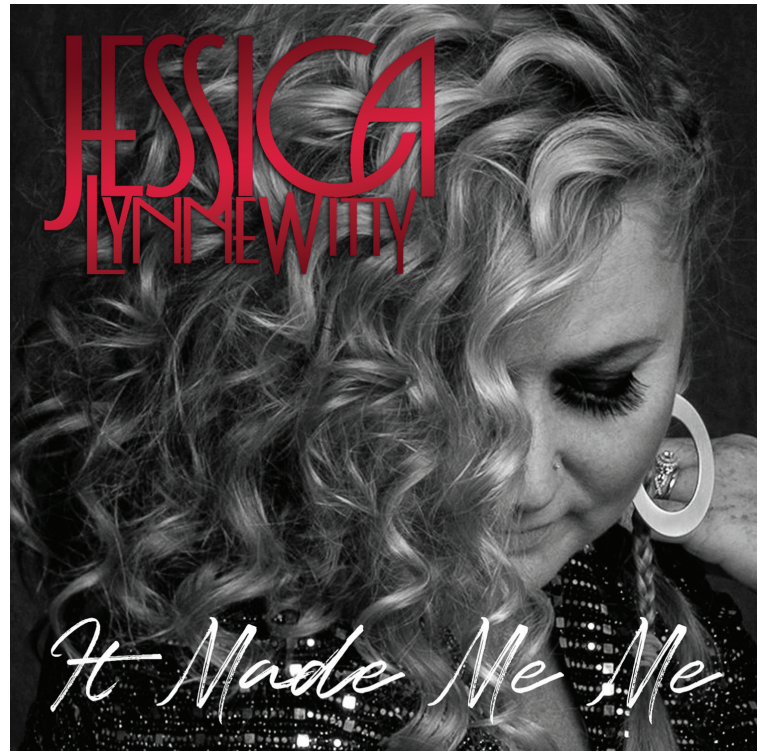

"Authentic and incredibly powerful. The honest voice of truth" Susan In Seattle

Bio

Internationally touring, Nashville recording artist Jessica Lynne Wittly moved to the U.S. from Denmark in 2010 and immediately took the Pacific Northwest by storm. She has opened for National Acts such as Diamond Rio, Dustin Lynch, Keith Anderson, and Trace Adkins, played legendary stages such as the Gorge Amphitheater and the Oregon Jamboree in addition to taking top honors as the Washington State Winner of the Texaco Country Showdown. Her 2020 award winning single "Crazy On The Outside" has set the tone for a whole new chapter in Jessica Lynne Wittly's career. The result is a fresh, contemporary take on country music with female power at the forefront, at a moment when the industry and the world is sorely ready for it.
