Bio

Internationally touring, Nashville recording artist Jessica Lynne Wittty moved to the U.S. from Denmark in 2010 and immediately took the Pacific Northwest by storm. She has opened for National Acts such as Diamond Rio, Dustin Lynch, Keith Anderson, and Trace Adkins, played legendary stages such as the Gorge Amphitheater and the Oregon Jamboree in addition to taking top honors as the Washington State Winner of the Texaco Country Showdown. Her 2020 award winning single "Crazy On The Outside" has set the tone for a whole new chapter in Jessica Lynne Wittty's career. The result is a fresh, contemporary take on country music with female power at the forefront, at a moment when the industry and the world is sorely ready for it.

About the Songs

Yuletide In My Doublewide is a small but powerful collection of originals and classics. It features an "island-y feel" version of "Christmas (Baby Please Come Home)" and a chilling duet sung with Jessica's dad, Bob Wittty of "White Christmas" poised to make you tear up. Alongside these classics are two holiday originals.

Christmas On The Road: When spending most of your time on the road, it's only a matter of time before a mountain pass keeps you away from your loved ones at Christmas.

Yuletide In My Doublewide is a love song about being happy with what you have, even if it's not much.
